The News Letter Journal, a 124-year-old, independently owned, award-winning, weekly community newspaper located in the Black Hills of Wyoming, seeks a motivated reporter who is ready to learn every aspect of the community newspaper business from a decorated editor and publisher while working alongside a close-knit veteran staff.

The successful candidate must be a solid writer who is ambitious and eager to develop the skills that will allow him/her to use news and opinion writing to guide a growing community towards a more prosperous future. This is no desk job, as any capable small-town reporter must be involved in all aspects of the community and determined to become the trusted, go-to source of information and knowledge for its residents.
