INTRODUCTION

The Chippewa Cree Tribe is seeking the services of an experienced individual or consulting firm "on an as-needed basis" that will work alongside the Department Heads to identify, research, assess, develop and prepare grant submissions.

The proponent's responsibilities will be to source appropriate funding opportunities from all levels of government, public and private foundations and other granting bodies for, but not limited to, capital infrastructure projects, social service programs, public safety, natural resource management, and economic development.

This contract for grant writing services may be for one (1) fiscal year starting October 1, 2020, and expiring September 30, 2021.

KEY CONTENT

In addition to the proposal requirements identified further on in this RFP, the following are considered key content that should be included as part of the proponent's proposal:

1. A brief outline of the Proponent's understanding of the service requirements.
2. A work plan approach and methodology to successfully complete an application process.
3. A list of past agencies to which a successful grant application has been submitted on behalf of a client.
4. Hourly or project rates and an anticipated fee to complete one typical application request from research to submission.
5. Three references of clients.

PROPOSAL INSTRUCTIONS

One hard copy of the Proposal is to be submitted and clearly marked on the outside envelope as follows:

GRANT WRITING PROPOSAL

The Chippewa Cree Tribe will receive Proposals at the location and time indicated at the beginning of this Request for Proposal.

It is the Proponents responsibility to ensure that the Chippewa Cree Tribe received your Proposal prior to the stated closing time. Faxed, electronic or unsealed submissions will not be accepted.

Requests for clarification or further information must be made in writing to the individual identified at the beginning of the RFP. The Chippewa Cree Tribe will respond to inquiries that it considers relevant to this RFP.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

The work involves identifying and researching appropriate funding sources, including sponsorship opportunities and completing grant applications in accordance with guidelines as specified by the funding sources. All applications are to be reviewed prior to submission to Staff.

SUMMARY OF WORK

The scope of work involves:

- a) Identifying and researching funding opportunities that are available to tribal governments. These opportunities, for instance, but not limited to, could relate to infrastructure project, arts & culture spaces and programs within civic buildings.
- b) Assessing grant opportunities in terms of Business Committee priorities.
- c) Writing successful grant applications.
- d) Monitoring and assessing the number and quality of grant applications.
- e) Providing updated reports on the status of grant applications.
- f) Providing status and final reports on successful grant applications.

The Consultant will provide:

- a) Recommendations to the Chippewa Cree Tribe regarding feasibility of pursuing specific funding opportunities.
- b) Draft and final grant applications in digital form as well as hard copies, with Final copies provided to planning and Development department.
- c) Written summary reports as required by the funding providers.

The Consultant will provide the above referenced deliverables as determined by grant funding timelines.

PRICING

The proposal is to include all pricing information relative to performing the consulting services as described in this RFP. As the Chippewa Cree Tribe is considering an "as if, when needed" contract, a proponent shall also provide hourly rates for the staff denoted in their proposal.

In order to evaluate submissions to this RFP, the proponent shall present prices in a schedule indicating individual fee structures for a typical grant application
